Finding out about Autism

Summary:

- Experience of Senses
- Communication
- Changes
- Somethings are harder others easier

Come together to talk and think about differences

People with Autism experience and respond to the world differently

We are all different unique in our own ways

Come together to talk and think about differences

- One thing that is similar
- One thing that is different

Eli's Poem

Hello everyone, my name is Eli and it's World Autism Acceptance Week. This poem is about my autism and how my autism makes me 'ME'!

- How can we support?
- How can we be helpful?
- How can we be accepting?

Some things that you find easy, like talking about your day,

I find quite hard, so sometimes may not answer right away.

And noises can sometimes hurt so much I cover up my ears,

So don't worry when I do this, it just helps the way I feel.

I see the world quite differently but that doesn't make it wrong.

The world would be so boring if we all sang the same song!

Autism makes me who I am, it's a special part of me,

And when I get my tricky days, I have my best friends in class to see!

And everyone is different, that so much is true.

It's the little things in all of us that really make you 'YOU'!

Eli likes:

- playing with Lego and marble runs
- tigers
- drawing
- watching YouTube
- school friends

Eli dislikes:

- loud noises
- answering difficult questions
- having his hair cut
- sitting still
